Application Questions

Personal Questions |

Question	Answer	Disqualifier?
What Board(s) and/or Commission(s) are you applying for? *	Ethics Commission
What prompted you to apply? *	Recommendation from Tracy Scheel, then researched the position
Have you ever been employed by the City of Kyle? *	No
Have you ever been employed by any other government body? *	Yes
What experiences do you have that would be useful in the board or commission? *	I worked for the City of Port Neches from 2000 - 2003, both of my parents were government employees also. I have served on Waterleaf Fall's HOA Board for over a year, and previously served on a committee with the Kyle Chamber of Commerce. I have been steadily getting more involved with the community, and have worked and/or lived in Kyle since 2012.
Do you possess any professional licenses? *	No
If yes, please list any that would be applicable to the board or commission you are applying for.	N/A
The City of Kyle is looking for people that share and promote our TeamKyle Core Values of Knowledge, Yes-Attitude, Leading Edge and Employee Accountability. How will you apply these core values to your service to the city? *	I am a champion for "research before you respond" logic. It has proven extremely effective in managing our HOA. I am very calm in stressful situations, and seek answers quickly. I know how to search and read municipal codes, and use them often in HOA scenarios. I need no outside motivation to accomplish my tasks and seek out new initiatives.
What other skills and/or experience would you like to add?	I have excellent written and spoken communication skills. I am not afraid of staying strong for what it right, even if it is unpopular. I have served in a Treasurer position many times and have a keen eye for numbers and details.
