Application Questions

Personal Questions |

Question	Answer	Disqualifier?
What Board(s) and/or Commission(s) are you applying for? *	The Library Board
	I have always been interested in serving members of the

What prompted you to apply? * community. I currently am very active in our church community, but realize that the spectrum of my home community extends beyond my church. I find the Library Board a means to serve a larger group of the Kyle community and continue to promote learning.

Have you ever been employed by the City of Kyle?

No

Have you ever been employed by any other government body? *

No

What experiences do you have that would be useful in the board or commission? *

I believe that my profession as an educator gives me some experiences in planning and interacting with people. I also have a strong believe that a team can achieve goals.

Do you possess any professional licenses? *

Yes

If yes, please list any that would be applicable to the board or commission you are applying for.

I am a certified bilingual teacher with experiences from Elementary level to University Level.

The City of Kyle is looking for people that share and promote our TeamKyle Core Values of Knowledge, Yes-Attitude, Leading Edge and Employee Accountability. How will you apply these core values to your service to the city? *

I believe strongly in Team Efforts, my experiences in education taught me that working together for a common goal is always more productive with positive results than not.

What other skills and/or experience would you like to add?

Other skills are being bilingual, having some computer skills, and having good interpersonal skills.
